EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

"The interesting thing about this expo is that a lot of people from different industries, be it chemical, sugar or even steel are here."

Samina Khalid
Head-Corporate Communications,
Thermax Limited

"Here we have participation from different companies. We've had project managers and CEOs visiting us from different organisations, this enables us to look at what we can do to help the industry grow."

Vaibhav Pradhan
General Manager,
Forbes Marshall

"Although there is so much we can do virtually today with technology, still it is important to meet people in person and it's important to see what they have in goods and services to offer."

Ashwin Savé
Co-Founder,
BiofuelCircle

"On one single platform, you are able to connect with everyone. If a person from the boiler industry has any kind of requirement, you can get anything out here under one roof, right from raw material to manufacturing and also meet the end users of boilers."

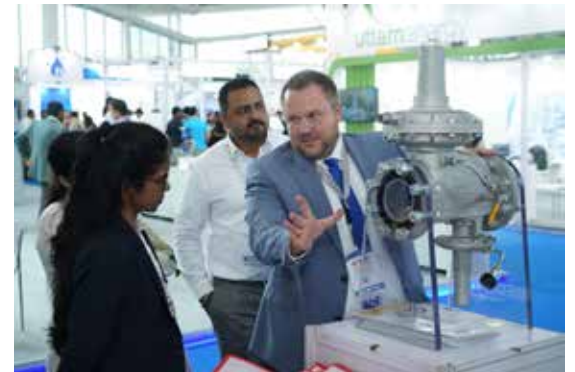

Arvind Tripathi
Sales Manager,
TPP Boilers Pvt Ltd

"The response was fabulous and so was the exposure we got with a lot of industrialists! And we've already closed some orders here itself! Total money's worth!"

Rahul Bhansali
Managing Director,
Moonlight Tube Industries
